

The University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma
Protection of Expressive Activities Report 2019

1. Information regarding the protection of public expressive activities is made public in the USAO Facilities manual, the USAO Student Handbook, on the USAO website and will be presented during our new student orientation process.
2. USAO has developed materials, programs and procedures to ensure that necessary staff are trained to understand the policies, regulations and duties in regards to free expression on the USAO campus.
3. There have been no barriers to or incidents of disruption of free expression occurring on the USAO campus in 2019.

Report prepared by Monica Treviño, Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs and Nancy Hughes, Dean of Students.

Approved by the President, Dr. John H. Feaver.
