Tuition Waiver Program for Employee Spouses and Dependents

Legal spouses and eligible dependents of fulltime, regular employees may be granted waivers for one-half tuition for up to 16 credit-hours per trimester and up to 140 total credit-hours. To qualify for this benefit, employee spouses and dependents must make application to the financial aid office. The Vice President for Human Resources will be responsible for verifying employee's eligibility for this benefit and the relationship of the applicant to the employee. Administration of this program will be subject to the following definitions and conditions:

1. Application must be made by the end of the add/drop period of any trimester for which the waiver is sought. However, early application is encouraged.
2. For purposes of this program, an employee dependent shall be a child, step-child or legal ward. To be eligible, a dependent must not have turned 25 years of age prior to the first day of the trimester for which the waiver is sought.
3. The waiver is for one-half tuition and per hour student fees. Special fees for materials, private music lessons, zero-level courses, late fees, etc. are excluded.
4. A "fulltime regular employee" is an employee occupying a permanent or fixed-term position which included participation in the university's regular fringe benefits program. The employee must have been employed in such status at the beginning of the term for which the waiver is sought.
5. A cumulative GPA of 2.0 and Satisfactory Academic Progress (as defined in the Science & Arts catalog under financial aid guidelines) are required to continue the waiver beyond the first awarded trimester.
6. Students on student conduct probation may not receive the waiver.
7. If granted, the waiver will be integrated with any other financial aid received from or through the university. In no case shall institutional waivers exceed the cost of the number of hours in which a student is enrolled.
