MISSION

The University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma (USAO) is a liberal arts, bachelor degree granting institution within the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education. The primary mission of USAO is to provide programs of instruction that combine liberal and career learning through a required core of general education consisting of team-taught, integrated, Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS). General education courses extend throughout the four-year degree program and are designed to complement and enrich the students’ professional preparation. The IDS courses show students the relationships between the academic disciplines and different fields of knowledge. Ultimately, education at USAO prepares students for effective living in a global world of change and to function as productive members of society, actively contributing to the general good as well as their own advancement.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO KNOW

USAO adheres to the philosophy of openness and therefore makes available to all students the following information on an annual basis:

• Number of students categorized by race and sex;
• Number of students who receive athletically related student aid, categorized by race and sex in all sports;
• Graduation rate for students categorized by race and sex;
• Completion or graduation rate for students who received athletically related student aid, categorized by race and sex;
• Average graduation rate for the four most recent graduating classes categorized by race and sex; and
• Average graduation rate for the four most recent graduating classes who received athletically related student aid, categorized by race and sex.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Information contained in the student handbook is designed to give students guidance on University procedures. The intent is not to take away individual liberties, but to insure knowledge and fair treatment on policies and procedures. This hand-book was approved by the USAO Board of Regents as of June 2007.

In such cases, no sanction may be imposed unless the student has been found guilty in a court of law or has declined to contest such charges, although not actually admitting guilt (e.g., “no contest” or “nolo contendere”).
2. University disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with violation of a law, which is also a violation of this Student Code, for example, if both violations result from the same factual situation, without regard to the tendency of civil litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this Student Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off-campus.

The University shall cooperate fully with law enforcement and other agencies in the enforcement of criminal law on campus and in the conditions imposed by criminal courts for the rehabilitation of student violators. Individual students and faculty members, acting in their personal capacities, remain free to interact with governmental representatives as they deem appropriate.

1. Any member of the University community may file charges against any student for misconduct. Charges shall be prepared in writing and directed to the Dean of Students. Any charge shall be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place.
2. The Dean of Students may conduct an investigation to determine if the charges have merit and/or if they can be disposed of administratively by mutual consent of the parties involved on a basis acceptable to the Dean of Students. Such disposition shall be final and there shall be no subsequent proceedings. If the charges cannot be disposed of by mutual consent, the Dean of Students may later serve in the same matter as the judicial body or a member thereof.
3. All charges shall be sent or delivered to the accused student in written form to the student’s campus address or the address listed in the Registrar’s records. This shall constitute full and adequate notice. A time shall be set for a hearing, neither less than three (3) nor more that fifteen (15) school days after the student has been notified. Maximum time limits for scheduling of hearings may be extended at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

B. Hearings

An Administrative Disciplinary Hearing shall be conducted by the Dean of Students or his/her designee. An Administrative Disciplinary Hearing shall be conducted when: a) separation from the University is not warranted, b) the student admits responsibility for the violation or c) fails to respond within the designated period of time.    b. Admission of any person to the hearing shall be at the discretion of the judicial body and/or it’s Judicial Advisor.
   c. In hearings involving more than one accused student, the chairperson of the judicial body, in his/her discretion may permit the hearings concerning each student to be conducted separately.
   d. The complainant and the accused have the right to be assisted by any advisor they choose, at their own expense. The advisor may be an attorney. The complainant and/or the accused are responsible for presenting his/her own case and, therefore, advisors are not permitted to speak or to participate directly in any hearing before a judicial body.
   e. The complainant, the accused and the judicial body shall have the privilege of presenting witnesses, subject to the right of cross examination by the judicial body.
   f. Pertinent records, exhibits and written statements may be accepted as evidence for consideration by a judicial body at the discretion of the chairperson.
   g. All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the chairperson of the judicial body.

i. The judicial body’s standard for disciplinary decision making shall be by a preponderance of the evidence.

2. There shall be a single verbatim record of all hearings before a judicial body. The record shall be the property of the University.

3. Except in the case of a student charged with failing to obey the summons of a judicial body or University Official, no student may be found to have violated the Student Code solely because the student failed to appear before a judicial body. In all cases, the evidence in support of the charges shall be presented and considered.

D. Sanctions
1. The following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code.
   a. Warning: A notice in writing to the student that the student is violating or has violated institutional regulations.
   b. Probation: A written reprimand for violation of specified regulations. Probation is for a designated period of time and includes the probability of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found to be violating any institutional regulations during the probationary period.
   c. Loss of Privileges: Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
   d. Fines: A monetary sum may be imposed for a code violation.
   e. Restitution: Compensation for loss, damage or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
   f. Discretionary Sanctions: Work assignments, service to the University or other related discretionary assignments (such assignments must have the prior approval of the Judicial Advisor).

Upon graduation, the student’s confidential records may be expunged of disciplinary actions other than Student Housing expulsion, University suspension, or University expulsion, upon application to the Dean of Students. Cases involving the imposition of sanctions other than Student Housing expulsion, University suspension, or University expulsion shall be expunged from the student’s confidential records three (3) years after final disposition of the case.

4. The following sanctions may be imposed upon groups or organizations:
   a. Those sanctions listed above in Section D 1, a through f.
   b. Deactivation: Loss of all privileges, including University recognition, for a specified period of time.

5. In each case in which a Judicial Advisor determines that a student has violated the Student Code, the sanction(s) shall be determined and imposed by the Dean of Students. Cases in which persons other than, or in addition to, the Dean of Students have been authorized to serve as the judicial body, shall be considered by the Dean of Students in determining and imposing sanctions. The Dean of Students is not limited to sanctions recommended by members of the judicial body. Following the hearing, the Dean of Students shall advise the accused in writing of the determination and of the sanction(s) imposed, if any.

E. Interim Suspension
In certain circumstances, the Dean of Students, or a designee, may impose a University or Student Housing suspension prior to the hearing before a judicial body.

   a. To ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community or preservation of University property;
   b. To ensure the student’s own physical or emotional safety and well-being;
   c. If the student poses a definite threat of disruption of, or interference with, the normal operation of the University.

2. During the interim suspension, the student shall be denied access to Student Housing and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible, as the Dean of Students deems appropriate.

1. A decision reached by the judicial body or a sanction imposed by the Dean of Students may be appealed by accused students or complainants to an Appellate Board within five (5) scheduled class days of the decision. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Dean of Students.
2. The University Appeals Committee shall hold appellate jurisdiction of University regulations. The Appeals Committee shall consist of faculty, students and staff appointed by the President of the University.
3. Except as required to explain the basis of new evidence, an appeal shall be limited to review of the verbatim record of the initial hearing and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:
   a. To determine whether the original hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and evidence presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complaining party a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence that the Student Code was violated, and giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a rebuttal to those allegations.
   b. To determine whether the decision reached regarding the facts in the case was based on substantial evidence, that is, whether the facts in the case were sufficient to establish that a violation of the Student Code occurred.
   c. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Student Code the student was found to have committed.
   d. To consider new evidence, sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such evidence and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original hearing.
4. The Appeals Committee has five (5) scheduled class days to reach a decision on the matter and transmit its decision to the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs. The Vice President shall notify the student in writing of any discipline imposed. The decision shall be final.

ARTICLE V: INTERPRETATION AND REVISION
A. Any question of interpretation regarding the Student Code shall be referred to the Dean of Students or his/her designee for final determination.
B. The Student Code shall be reviewed every three (3) years under the direction of the Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs. (Regents 05/11/04)

ACADEMIC CODE OF CONDUCT

Section I: Definitions of Academic Dishonesty

A. Plagiarism
   Plagiarism is stealing the words or ideas of another person and presenting them as one’s own, either by copying someone else’s work or by paraphrasing. Each time a writer or speaker presents someone else’s ideas or works, credit must be given to that person. Some selected examples of plagiarism include:
   1. Submitting written or oral work done totally or in part by someone else.
   2. Failing to give credit in a paper, footnote, or speech for works or ideas originated by another person.
   3. Failing to use quotation marks when quoting written material directly from another person.
   4. Paraphrasing another’s ideas or words without indicating the source of the information.
   5. Submitting work that was submitted in another course, whether in its original or altered form, without first obtaining the permission of the instructor.
   6. Knowingly aiding any of the above offenses.

B. Fabrication
   Fabrication is inventing information. Although fabrication may involve plagiarism, fabrication does not include necessarily the stealing of ideas from another writer. Fabrication, however, is dishonest. With fabrication the writer or speaker is deceiving an audience by presenting work as based on real, established facts when those facts do not exist. Some selected examples of fabrication would include:
   1. Using false citations, i.e., falsely attributing information or ideas to an authoritative source.
   2. Using graphs or statistical information not supported by existing data based on actual research.
   3. Falsely claiming that one did formal research in support of a paper or speech.
   4. Reporting data that was not actually collected.
5. Knowingly aiding any of the above offenses.

C. Cheating
Cheating is presenting material as proof that the writer or speaker has learned the information when, in fact, he/she has not. Some selected examples of cheating would include:
1. Allowing another person to do one’s work and presenting it under one’s own name.
2. Using unauthorized notes, study aids, or information from another student on in-class examinations.
3. Altering a graded work after it has been returned, and then re-submitting the work as though for the first time.
4. Having another respond to one’s name during roll call or having another sign one’s name on an attendance sheet.
5. Obtaining, either directly or with the help of another, an advance copy of an examination.
6. Knowingly aiding any of the above offenses.

D. Forgery and Altering Documents
Forgery is writing someone else’s name on a record or document. Forgery also means altering a record or document for the purpose of presenting inaccurate information. Some selected examples of forgery would be:
1. Altering official academic records
2. Making an unauthorized signature for a faculty member or other University Official.
3. Falsifying information on an official academic document.

Section III: Procedures and Punishments

Unintentional Dishonesty
Faculty should clearly warn the student and educate them as to proper academic practices. Such cases need not be reported to the Office of Academic Affairs or the Academic Integrity Committee.

Intentional Dishonesty

Minor Offenses

The professor shall provide a written account of the incident to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall keep a record of the report and refer the incident to the Chair of the Academic Integrity Committee. The Committee Chair shall bring the report to the Committee at its next scheduled monthly meeting, and invite the student and the instructor to meet with the Committee.

The Committee may impose a maximum penalty of an “F” for the course, or a lesser penalty as it deems appropriate.

The Committee shall report the proceedings and penalty to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall then communicate the decision to the professor and the student, in writing, within 3 working days. The Office of Academic Affairs shall also report the action to the Director of Financial Aid, who shall notify any academic or athletic department that has awarded an institutionally-supported scholarship to the student.

In the event that the Academic Integrity Committee has not reached a decision by the time final grades are due, or if the matter is still in appeals, then the instructor shall assign a grade of “I” for the course. The instructor shall then change the grade to reflect the outcome of the process.

Serious Offenses

The professor shall provide a written account of the incident to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall keep a record of the report and refer the incident to the Chair of the Academic Integrity Committee. The Committee Chair shall bring the report to the Committee at its next scheduled monthly meeting, and invite the student and the instructor to meet with the Committee.

The Committee may impose a maximum penalty of a one semester suspension from the University, or lesser penalty as it deems appropriate. The Office of Academic Affairs shall also report the action to the Director of Financial Aid, who shall notify any academic or athletic department that has awarded an institutionally-supported scholarship to the student.

A record of the offense and the penalty shall be included in the student’s academic record. In the event of a suspension, the Committee may place a statement on the student’s transcript indicating that the suspension was the result of academic dishonesty.

If the student commits no other academic dishonesty offenses, an appeal may be made to the Academic Integrity Committee to remove the record of the offense from the student’s record upon graduation.

In the event that the Academic Integrity Committee has not reached a decision by the time final grades are due, or if the matter is still in appeals, then the instructor shall assign a grade of “I” for the course. The instructor shall then change the grade to reflect the outcome of the process.

Egregious Offenses

The professor shall provide a written account of the incident to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall keep a record of the report and refer the incident to the Chair of the Academic Integrity Committee. The Committee Chair shall bring the report to the Committee at its next scheduled monthly meeting, and invite the student and the instructor to meet with the Committee.

The Committee may impose a maximum penalty of expulsion from the University, or a lesser penalty as it deems appropriate. The Committee shall report the proceedings and penalty to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall then communicate the decision to the professor, the student, and the Registrar, in writing, within 3 working days. The Office of Academic Affairs shall also report the action to the Director of Financial Aid, who shall notify any academic or athletic department that has awarded an institutionally-supported scholarship to the student.

A record of the offense and the penalty shall be included in the student’s academic record. In the event of a suspension or expulsion, the Committee may place a statement on the student’s transcript indicating that the suspension or expulsion was the result of academic dishonesty.

If the student commits no other academic dishonesty offenses, an appeal may be made to the Academic Integrity Committee to remove the record of the offense from the student’s record upon graduation.

In the event that the Academic Integrity Committee has not reached a decision by the time final grades are due, or if the matter is still in appeals, then the instructor shall assign a grade of “I” for the course. The instructor shall then change the grade to reflect the outcome of the process.

Section IV: The Academic Integrity Committee

The Academic Integrity Committee shall be composed of 5 tenured faculty members, one from each of the four academic divisions, and one faculty representing Interdisciplinary Studies. The Registrar shall serve as an ex officio member of the Committee.

Faculty shall serve on the Academic Integrity Committee for a term of 2 academic years, and shall appoint a Chair for a term of one academic year.

The Committee will have standing monthly meetings, on days and times determined by the Chair, at which it hears all cases of academic dishonesty that have been reported since the previous meeting.
Part IV: Procedure for Appeals

Both the instructor and the student shall have the right to appeal the decision of the Academic Integrity Committee to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Upon request for an appeal, the Vice President will appoint an ad hoc Appeals Committee consisting of five tenured faculty who have no previous involvement with the incident. The ad hoc Appeals Committee may uphold or overturn the decision of the Academic Integrity Committee. The ad hoc committee will report its decision to the Office of Academic Affairs, which shall then communicate the decision to the professor and the student, in writing, within 3 working days.

The instructor and the student shall have the right to appeal the decision of the ad hoc Appeals Committee to the President. The President may uphold or overturn the decision.

If, after all campus channels have been exhausted, no satisfactory solution has been reached, the student or instructor may request a hearing before the USAO Board of Regents.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING DEMONSTRATIONS

The right of the student to free speech in order to express opinion, and the right to petition and assemble for this purpose, is recognized by the University. Such expression, petitions, or assemblies must take place in an orderly manner to avoid in any way curtailing the legal operation of the University, interfering with the employees or the University in the normal performance of their assigned duties in a manner that would substantially hinder or prevent them from performing those duties, and/or violating the right of other students to pursue any part of their University life.

Definitions: Speech, as used in this document, is the oral presentation of ideas in an open forum. Demonstration is any process of showing individual or group cause by speech, example, group action, or other form of public expression.

Such expression, petitions, and/or assemblies on University premises shall be conducted in compliance with the following regulations with appropriate time, place, and manner limitations:

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

The following procedures have been established for processing student grievances against the University or a member of the University community, other than a student or student group. Student grievances against other students or groups of students are resolved through procedures established by the Student Government Association.

The paramount function of these procedures is to determine whether an institutional error or an injustice has occurred and if so, what constitutes an appropriate redress for the grievance.

Students are encouraged to discuss their grievance informally with the Dean of Students. Confidentiality is assured. For grievances against a faculty/staff member, the faculty/staff member and the departmental chairperson shall be informed in writing by the Dean of Students.

A meeting between the student and faculty/staff member may be scheduled to attempt to resolve the grievance. If it is not resolved at this level, or if it is appropriate, a meeting with the faculty member, the student, the departmental chair, the Vice President of Enrollment Management and Student Affairs and the Dean of Students shall be scheduled.

If grievances cannot be resolved informally, the student may thoroughly explain the grievance in writing on the Report of Grievance and submit the form to the Dean of Students. The Report of Grievance shall be referred to the chairperson of the Grievance Committee, who shall convene the committee. Grievances against a departmental chairperson shall be referred to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The Grievance Committee consists of two members of the faculty, two members of the professional/classified staff, and two members of the Student Government Association, appointed by the Student Government Association President, with the confirmation of the Student Senate. Members of the Grievance Committee serve one-year terms. Committee members are absolved of any and all personal liability or responsibility for decisions made and actions taken by the committee (adopted by Regents, 1-77, revised 6-79, revised 6-82).

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The University is committed to creating and maintaining an environment for all University personnel and students which is free of objectionable and disrespectful conduct and communication. The University shall not permit conduct of a sexual nature which interferes with individual rights and responsibilities or creates an intimidating or offensive atmosphere either for working or learning. Those individuals who hold positions of responsibility may exercise legitimate authority over others but must avoid conflicts of interest and possible compromise or abuse of such authority.

DEFINITION

REGULATIONS
1. It shall be a violation of University policy for anyone who is authorized to recommend or take action affecting faculty, staff or students:
   a. To make sexual advances or request sexual favors when submission to or reflection of such conduct is the basis for whether implicitly or explicitly imposing or granting terms and conditions of employment or instruction which favorably or adversely affect the welfare of faculty, staff and students;
   b. To act or refuse to take action because of sexual favors, or to retaliate against a person who has rejected or reported sexual advances;

The right to confidentiality of all parties involved in a sexual harassment charge shall be strictly adhered to insofar as it does not interfere with the University’s legal obligations to investigate allegations of misconduct when brought to the University’s attention and to take corrective action.

If after review and action by the parties, the complainant is not satisfied with the decision, a written complaint may be filed with the President who shall refer the matter for recommendation to the appropriate grievance committee as provided for in the faculty, staff and student handbooks. (Regents 4/21/83)

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
The University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma does not tolerate nor condone rape or other forms of sexual misconduct, whether by a stranger or by an acquaintance, whether against women or men. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to, stranger rape, date rape, acquaintance rape, gang rape, rape by a foreign object, forced sodomy, forced oral copulation, sexual battery, or threat of sexual misconduct. These actions are violations of law for which criminal charges can be filed and civil remedies sought. They are also violations of the Student Code of Conduct for which disciplinary action can be taken, including suspension or expulsion from the University. If the alleged offender is a student and a complaint is filed, the University will follow established disciplinary procedures to process the case. USAO will provide assistance and support for student victims of sexual assault. (Regents 6/2007)

DEFINITIONS
A. Sexual Misconduct
Sexual Misconduct is any sexual act that occurs without the effective consent of the other party and includes but is not limited to the following:
1. Sexual intercourse (vaginal, anal, or oral penetration) however slight with any object by a male or female, whether an acquaintance or a stranger, without effective consent.
2. Other sexual contact including attempted or actual touching of the genitalia, buttocks, breast, or clothing covering same without effective consent.
3. Unwanted verbal, written or pictorial conduct of a sexual nature which is intimidating, hostile, offensive, and/or which adversely affects the learning, working and living environment of the University.

B. Effective Consent
Effective Consent is informed, freely and actively given, mutually understandable words or actions which indicate a willingness to participate in a mutually agreed upon, specific sexual activity. A person can withdraw consent at any time during the course of a sexual encounter.
Initiators of sexual activity are responsible for obtaining effective consent. The use of alcohol or drugs does not diminish the initiator’s responsibility to obtain effective consent. Silence, passivity or non-communication is not effective consent. The use of intimidation, coercion, threats, force, or violence negates any consent obtained. Lack of consent is implied if there is an imbalance of power held by the perpetrator over the victim.
Consent is not considered effective if obtained from an individual who is incapable of giving consent due to the following:
1. a mental, developmental, or physical disability; or
2. she or he is under the legal age to give consent; or
3. she or he is intoxicated by alcohol or under the influence of drugs.

Consent cannot be inferred from:
1. permission for one particular act;
2. a current sexual, romantic, dating, or marital relationship;
3. a prior sexual, romantic, dating, or marital relationship.

I. Students may request that campus personnel assist them in the reporting of the crime of sexual assault. If the student does not choose to file a report, the student may still request procedural services from the Office of Student Services.

2. Anonymous reports may be filed. For on-campus adjudication, however, the complainant must be identified.

In addition, an individual charged with a sexual assault may be subject to prosecution under Oklahoma Criminal Statutes.
