- v. President's Report
 - a. We'll be taking a more hands-off approach this semester, and with that, every senator is required to submit at least one piece of legislation during their term in order to run again, so he highly recommends co-authoring and working together on that. Second, we'll be doing Drover Difference Day, a big community service day, sometime in April. We're wondering if senators could come together and help with a name and being there. We'll be meeting next week to discuss it.
- vi. Vice President's Report
 - a. For the hands-off approach, the guides are on Instagram if you need any help, and he still has the Quizlet if senators need to review Roberts's rules. Also, he will be making a booklet, where senators could possibly get a prize, it's at the senator's own leisure and an incentive to get their Roberts rules up to snuff.
- vii. Treasurer's Report

- a. General Funds: $4,756. Also, Droverthon will be in March, children from the children's hospital will come down and you can hear their stories, there'll be a fashion show, games, raising money for the children, and the fashion show will have prizes. If you're interested in going, she'll post the link in the senate teams. There will also be free t-shirts for the first 50 people who sign up.

viii. Advisor's Report

- a. Counseling resources have been upgraded to mental health resources; they'll be expanding to group therapy and other mental health resources outside of one-on-one counseling. Rachel Dreshcler passed her national counseling exam, so we now have the possibility of having two full-time counselors on campus. If you're interested, connect them with Cristy for more resources. Also, the owner of the Spark asked if any students would be interested in going to a game in Norman for a non-profit event on "Life After Athletics" at the Noun Hotel on February 25th at 7 pm. It would be a good networking opportunity. Do your Vector Training by March 3rd, if you don't a hold will go on your bursar account. Basketball games tonight and next Thursday, and every Wednesday, Annie will send a sign-up sheet for more information.

ix. Secretary's Report
